

CADRE's Literature on Dispute Resolution in Special Education Annotated Bibliography Database

www.directionservice.org/cadre/raisearch.cfm

This developing and searchable database contains literature (research-based and policy/practice) related to dispute resolution in special education. A complete list of articles appears below listed in order of date of publication. You can re-sort the articles by clicking on the Title, Author or Date link at the top of each column, as well as limit the search by choosing from the topics in the table below. For more information about an individual article, click on the title of the article. Links to full-text articles are available for some of the resources.

CADRE is interested in receiving assistance in identifying additional articles not found in the database. If you are aware of other resources that CADRE might consider for inclusion in this database, click here and cite as much identifying information as possible (title, author, source, date and link where possible):
